

Readmission Frequently Asked Questions

Welcome to the Readmission FAQ page! Here, we provide answers to common questions about the readmission process. For additional questions or personalized assistance, contact a retention advisor at readmissions@tcc.edu.

What is Readmission?

Readmission allows students who were academically suspended or dismissed to return and continue their studies.

How do I know if I am eligible for readmission?

You may qualify for readmission if:

- You are a TCC student and were academically suspended or dismissed and have met the reapplication criteria, such as sitting out for a semester following suspension or dismissal.
 - You are a student from another college and were academically suspended or dismissed from the college.

How do I apply for readmission?

To apply, complete the Readmission Application.

What documents are needed for the readmission process?

Depending on your circumstances, you may need to provide:

- A completed Readmission Application
 - Academic transcripts from any other institutions you attended (Students do not need to send TCC transcripts.)
 - The Student Responsibility Agreement (This document will be provided in the meeting with the retention advisor.)

What happens after I submit my application?

After submitting your application:

- A retention advisor will reach out to review your documents.

- The dean of retention will assess your application to determine approval or denial for the upcoming semester.
 - You will meet with a retention advisor to discuss your academic history, current standing, and future academic plan.
 - If you are returning after academic suspension or dismissal, you may also need to meet the reinstatement conditions for Satisfactory Academic Progress \(SAP\).

Can I be readmitted after academic suspension or dismissal?

Yes, you can reapply after academic suspension or dismissal. You must:

- Meet the conditions for readmission, such as sitting out the semester following suspension or dismissal.
 - Submit the Readmission Application. You can email any additional questions or supporting documents to readmission@tcc.edu.

What is the deadline for readmission applications?

Submit your Readmission Application at least 2–3 months before the semester begins to allow sufficient time for review and advisement.

Can I apply for financial aid after being readmitted?

Yes, we recommend contacting our financial aid office to check your eligibility. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid \(FAFSA\) as soon as possible. Your eligibility may also depend on meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress \(SAP\) requirements.

How will I know if my readmission application is approved?

You will receive an email notification after your application has been reviewed and a decision made (usually within 5-7 business days). Check your college email regularly for updates.

Who can I contact if I have questions about the readmission process?
